Redvers Becomes A Winter Wonderland

Much of southeastern Saskatchewan has been covered in frost since the beginning of December. Meteorologists say that the gorgeous ice formations are the combination of rime ice and hoar frost. Rime ice forms on cold days or nights when atmospheric conditions are calm and an abundance of moisture is in place, as was the case with the multiple days of fog we experienced. Hoar frost forms in a similar way, but doesn't require as much moisture. Images of gorgeous ice crystals and formations have been abundant. We are lucky enough to have had our readers share their favourite images with us, some of which have been featured in this month's Covering the Corner.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC

Submitted by Jocelyn Hainsworth

For everyone out there who complains about being force fed Christmas music, I apologize, but 'tis the season! There is snow on the ground, it's time to make Christmas cookies, black Friday has come and gone, and The Grinch has joined CUPW to make sure Canada Post doesn't deliver presents in time ... all the signs are here: It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas!

To get myself in the proper mood I had to spend a few minutes scrolling through my Sirius XM menu to find it, but the Hallmark Channel is playing me all my favourites now. I'm Having Myself A Merry Little Christmas.

Actually, I got a head start and decorated my big evergreen about a month ago - 'cause, Baby, It's Cold Outside! by the time I want to light them up. This past week I also hung some stockings across the front of the deck. I guess that means at this place we don't Deck the Halls ... we deck the deck. I have a few more things I want to do outside before I call that job complete, but Oh Christmas Tree! it sure looks nice in the dark already.

The inside part of Christmas readiness is a bigger job to tackle. Just yesterday I stood in my kitchen wondering Where Are You Christmas? Where to start? And I found myself Making a List, and Checking It Twice ... cooking, cleaning, writing, wrapping ... there was a lot to do!

I went with cleaning and only meant to clean the outside of my kitchen cabinets to start with. As it turned out it was like I had found Frosty the Snowman's old silk hat, because some kind of magic took over and I accomplished at least three day's work before supertime.

While I worked I thought of the people who would had said "I'll Be Home For Christmas" and looked forward to seeing them. There are also those who won't be able to make it, but in this day and age of video calls we will be able to talk and appreciate that it's Christmas Where You Are. I know that the grandkids in Australia will be Dreaming of a White Christmas, but will likely spend the day surfing instead.

It's still a little more than a week away, but Santa Claus Is Coming To Town. I don't think that Winterfest has ever been packed with so many things to do: you can start the day with a breakfast, go on a scavenger hunt, show off your gingerbread houses, taste homemade toffee in the snow, play in the bouncy castle, visit with Santa and Mrs. Claus or have your picture with them, go for a sleigh ride, take in the twinkle tour, watch the parade, and enjoy the bon fire. There's going to be music too - sure hope it's Christmassy! These are surely Some of My Favourite Things!

Be sure to dress warmly though - Jack Frost Will Be Nipping At Your Nose!

In no time the big day will be upon us. We will have eaten too many goodies, spent too much on gifts, and have to stay up much too late waiting for Santa time to happen. It's a good thing though, to spend a few minutes on that Silent Night, thinking of our own Grown Up Christmas Lists.

We Wish You a Very Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year!

Redvers Skating Club Submitted

The Redvers Skating Club is in full swing and we are excited to see all our skaters improve every week. This year we have 35 skaters in our Learn To Skate program. We meet once a week on Tuesdays, from 3:45-5:00 p.m. With the help from our twelve instructors our little skaters are moving from a little duck walk to full skating strides. Plus, our older group of skaters are working on waltz jumps and one-foot spins. Cheryl Bartel and Lance Bartel have been working hard with the Power Skating groups on Monday nights. Power Skating is all about working on technique to make the skater powerful and faster. Thirty-two kids were moved into three groups, and each group is on the ice for forty minutes of intense training. Our bridging program from Learn to Skate to Power Skating is a great asset to our Minor Hockey Program. When a skater has a good solid foundation on how to skate, the hockey coach can focus on teaching the game of hockey. It is a win-win for everyone!

The Redvers Skating Club wishes to thank South East District for their support. With the funding we received through the Grow Your Community grant, we were able to purchase two Ezeryders and five adjustable balance bars for our Learn to Skate program.

Haven Happenings - Submitted

So here it is December already! Mark Barnes has organized a resident/family Christmas afternoon on Friday December 5th. Curtis and Bonnie Szakacs and family will be bringing their musical talents to us for the afternoon of music/food/family. We start at 2 – don't be late.

Fast forward to the 21st and Corinne will be hosting a resident/staff Christmas party complete with a catered meal! Nice! Oh and Santa is coming – we arranged an early audience with him – we know how hectic his schedule is closer to the 25th! Can you relate?

Right around and in between those dates the music keeps on coming. Len's Band will entertain on Dec. 4th; the Sinclair Singers arrive on the 9th; Phil Wilk makes his magic Dec. 11th; and we join together for a Christmas Sing along Dec. 12th. Dec 17th Keith Olsen comes to entertain ahead of the catechism kids all in one afternoon! Closing out the month the Happy Wanderers arrive Dec. 28th. Most performances start at 2:30.

The public is welcome to come any time to enjoy all the music: make sure you come to lend your voice on the 12th. Oh and don't forget to bring your wallet with you. A Christmas hamper is up for raffle – lots of goodies – complete with a sleigh! Tickets are $5 or get 3 for $10.

A REMINDER: the activity room and or family conference rooms are available anytime for a family or families to come together with their resident friend/family member and celebrate with them. We ask that you give us 24 hours notice, book a room and plan to enjoy a time of togetherness. Private affairs are so much more intimate and special! We encourage you to use our activity room after 4 p.m. any day.

Residents and staff want to wish all "Covering the Corner" readers a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Please note: Visiting the long-term care facility? Please use the entrances on the east side. Park in the parking lot east of the garages just off of Dr. Arthur Avenue and follow wheel chair ramp unto terrace. Visiting a hospital patient after 5 p.m. or on the weekend? Please use the hospital emergency entrance.

November has come and gone and was a fairly quiet month at the Library. On Nov 17th we hosted a Red Cross babysitting class offered by B-Prepared Safety training. There are 14 new babysitters ready to roll!!! Also on the 17th, Michelle delivered our collection of Operation Christmas Child boxes to Moosomin. There are 55 shoeboxes headed all over the world to make someone's Christmas a little more bright and cheery.

Hey, hey December.... Where you been all year?? Can you believe we are here already?? Hope all of you are on the nice list this year! Speaking of the nice list, stop by the Library to get your copy of the Winterfest colouring contest. Just like last year, the winner of the colouring contest will win a ride on Santa's sleigh for themselves and a friend during the Winterfest parade. Colouring pages are due back at the Library by closing on Friday, Dec 6th! Who doesn't want a little extra 1 on 1 time with St Nick right before Christmas to explain themselves??

Also in the fun department, the Playstation Virtual Reality set will be back in December, starting on Tuesday, Dec 3rd and running until Dec 17th, so stop by to take your turn. We do require a parent or guardian be present for kids under 10, unless during BlockHeadz on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The VR will be available for everyone to try during all open hours so come by and try racing cars, shooting evil clowns or maybe a deep sea dive!!

We will be closed from December 23rd to January 1st, inclusive, so make sure that you pick up an extra book or two to get you through those long holiday drives. And if you can't make it in to see me, there is always Hoopla and Libby available for free on your smart device for audiobooks and ebooks.

From the Board and staff of the Redvers Public Library, Happy Holidays and we wish you all the best in 2019!!

École de Bellegarde
Submitted

Bonjour! The students have been busy at École de Bellegarde. September and October were busy with volleyball practices, games and tournaments. On November 6th, the grade 11 and 12 students travelled to Regina for "See Your Future" where they had a chance to explore the many post-secondary options available to them. They also had the chance to tour the University of Regina and Saskatchewan Polytechnic. On November 15th two students travelled to "Insight" at Sask Polytech to follow existing students in their chosen program. Here they got to experience what their first year may resemble. November 7th saw the school and community come together to observe Remembrance Day. As always, this celebration was very moving. A special thank you to Corporal Fraser Inglis for sharing his experiences as a veteran of the war in Afghanistan. We had a fun day with AJF for improv workshop at the end of November and all the students from grades 7 to 10 had a lot of fun! Lastly our annual "Souper Théâtre" was held on December 4th and our grades 7 to 10 actors did an excellent job of entertaining the crowd with their French and English plays! Big thank you to their teachers and all the parents of Voyage Québec for the great appetizer, and help to make that evening a big success!

There are many exciting events coming up in Bellegarde!

- December 10- Hudson Bay show for all students
- December 18—School Christmas concert
- December 20—Grade 5-12 students will be going to Asessippi for their annual ski trip.

December 21 is the last day of classes before the Christmas break. As is tradition, the students will come to school in their pajamas. There will be presents, games, and brunch for the students and staff to enjoy.

Our school year seems to be passing very quickly. As the saying goes, "Time flies when you are having fun!" À la prochaine!

Legion Gets A Facelift Submitted

If you haven't already noticed, take a drive by the Redvers Legion and check out the facelift! Co-op Communities in Full Colour provided the paint for this much needed facelift.

Redvers Legion & Redvers Wildlife Archery Club paired up, working with Advantage Co-op Redvers Staff, Melanie Houston, to get the job done. Local painter Tiffany Holtom was up for the challenge and did an excellent job.

Organizations and businesses working together in a community is a quality of Redvers that many of the residents can attest to and it is something we are all very proud of!! Thank you very much to everyone involved!

This project was done in conjunction with:
Co-op Communities in Full Colour, Advantage Co-op Redvers, Redvers Legion & Redvers Wildlife Archery Club

Ever find yourself wondering what Santa is up to? Since 1955, NORAD has been keeping tabs on the big guy. It all started with a Sears department store ad that listed an incorrect phone number to chat with Santa. Instead of going to Santa, it went to the "red phone" in the Continental Air Defense Command Operation Center. Instead of Kriss Kringle, Colonel Harry Shoup answered and a Christmas tradition was born. Now, the same satellites and radars used to protect North America are used to track Santa. Visit <https://www.noradsanta.org/> with your littles to experience all NORAD has to offer.

We are full swing into the 2018/2019 Hockey season, this year we are down a couple of teams but don't you worry there is still more than enough hockey for you to come and enjoy. There is 1 initiation (6), 2 Novice (8), 2 Atom (10), 1 PeeWee (12), 1 Bantam (14) and 1 Midget (18) and 2 Recreation Teams. Of course there is still the Redvers Rockets Sr team, the Dirty Dogs, and the Ladies Hockey team. So when I say we are down a couple teams, I should really say we have a manageable number of teams this year :) it's always fun to see how everyone improves over the season and with Redvers being such a strong "hockey" town it's exciting to see where everyone places at the end of the year!

December 8th will be a busy day for all; the Winterfest as well as Redvers Minor Hockey Day are taking place. Be sure to check out the posters around town so you don't miss any of the fun.

December 8th schedule:

7:30am-10am – Pancake Breakfast
8:30- Initiation vs Reston
9:30 – Novice Brodie vs Novice Chris
11:00 – Atom Jeremy vs Atom Jody
1:00 – PeeWee vs TBD
3:00 – Bantam vs Estevan 1
5:00 – 7:00 – Public Skate
8:00- Midgets vs Milestone

The Redvers Skating club is not short on members; Tuesday afternoons are a busy time on the ice with a total of 35 skaters. Also Monday afternoon's Cheryl and Lance Bartel provide 32 skaters with some power skating tips to get the most out of every stride!

The curling club started the ice making process a little earlier than normal which in turn gives everyone more time to get the brooms out. Be sure to watch our Facebook page for upcoming bonspiels and events the club will be putting on.

A little bit of exciting news, Redvers Minor Ball has been approved to host the U16 girl's ball provincials this summer. The exact dates have yet to be determined, as I find out more details I will definitely be passing them along.

If you haven't heard the Rec Centre is having lunch specials every Tuesday. If you are looking for a quick bite or want to take it to go, stop at the Rec Centre from 11am-1:30pm Tuesday's and we will fix you up a plate. Be sure to take a look at our Facebook page to see what's on the menu.

Until next month stay safe everyone while on the roads, Enjoy the upcoming holiday season and I'm sure I'll see you at the rink!!
