Redvers Pool Project Complete!!

REDVERS SWIMMING POOL PROJECT COMPLETE

Submitted

After a lot of hard work, a few unexpected delays and a ton of stressing we are excited to say the Redvers Swimming pool is now a completely accessible facility and we are open for the season!!

The Redvers Recreation Board would like to thank all of you for your patience and understanding while waiting for opening day. We would also like to thank everyone that came to lend a hand in any way throughout the build process.

With opening a little later this season weather permitting we are hoping we will be able to run a little later into September. We have a great group of lifeguards that are excited as you are to be at the swimming pool and want to make it last as long as possible.

Stay tuned on our Redvers & District Recreation Centre Facebook page so you don't miss any of our upcoming events.

HAVEN HAPPENINGS

Submitted

Haven Activity Department is ever so appreciative of those who volunteer their time to enrich the lives of our residents.

We got to check out some local crops via the handivan. August will see us back out there: no doubt we'll see the harvest underway!!

As July 20th marked the 50th anniversary of the first maned lunar landing we adopted that as our theme for the month. We have an excuse for our starry eyes and or spaced out looks!!

The 'All Things Barbeque' Raffle draw was held July 26th declared Garth Mann the lucky one.

thank you

The Albert Martin family would like to thank everyone from near and far for your thoughtfulness, prayers, flowers, food, visits, messages, calls, donations and overwhelming generosity in more ways than we can imagine.

The sudden loss of Dad was a shock for all of us. Your kind words and support will help us through this difficult time.

Thanks to Father Wilfred, Dustin Hall, Ladies who provided lunch, Moose Mountain Provincial Park, Firefighters and everyone who helped in any way.

Words can not express what we are trying to say.

So thank you all.

WHAT IS INCLUSION?

Submitted by Redvers Activity Centre

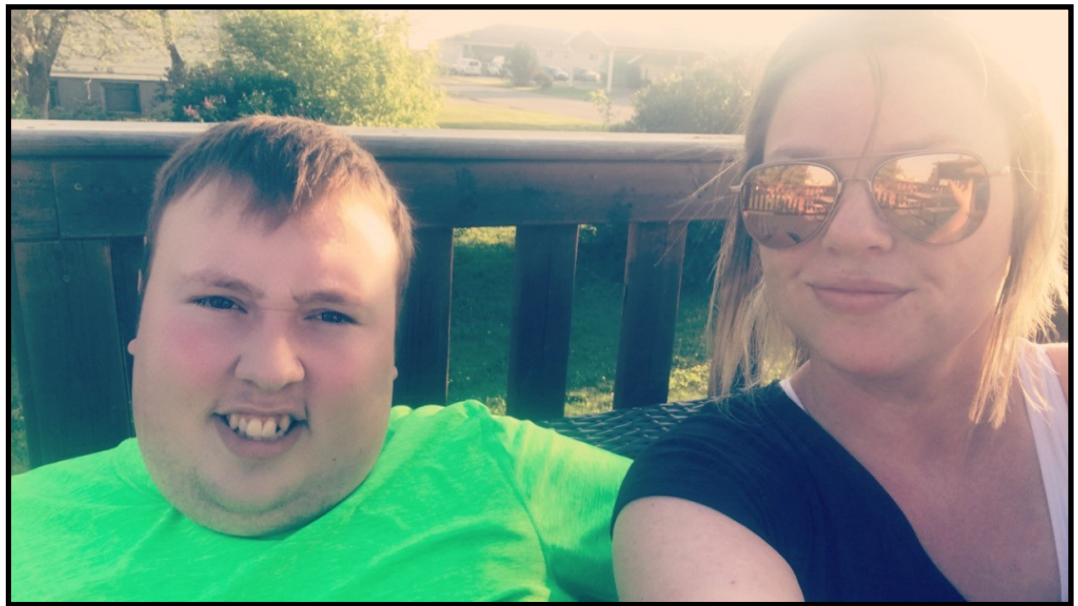

Inclusion is defined as the state of being included. In the disability services world, this is a big buzz word because for so long throughout history, people with disabilities have not been included in many parts of society. Here's the thing about inclusion though....inclusion is something we all just do. We find our friends and our crowd so no one has to make it happen for us because it just happens naturally as we gravitate to our tribe. People with disabilities, however, don't have as much opportunity to find their tribe so that's where we come in! It is up to us to assist people who need it to find where they fit in because everyone has a place somewhere, they just need opportunities to figure it out! Thus, as a society, let's all do our part to support the most vulnerable among us to find their place and to be fully included in their community; that's inclusion at its finest.

Master Blaise, great grandson to resident Lise Lemieux was called upon to make the draw after the summer picnic auction. What summer picnic you ask? Friday July 26th residents, their families and RHC staff enjoyed a Kentucky Fried Chicken meal. Dessert? Everyone got an ice cream cup (sorry to those who missed out – a package got left in the fridge) some BID for their pie and got to have it “a la mode”! Many thanks to those who donated items for auction: Robyn Smith, Affinity Cr Un, Monica Campbell, Wayne Truman (2 cheery pies and a Kid's Beach Package), Doreen and Aime Holden (9 PIES)!! Please forgive if I missed including you. HUGH THANKS to volunteers of the day – Dellan Mohrbutter, Doreen Holden, Wayne Truman Mona George, and Margerite's daughters. THANK YOU to all those who supported the auction and thus our Activity Department- our hat is off to you!!!

August will have us enjoying more sunshine, handivan rides. dog visits and some afternoon kids play!!

Until next time - enjoy summer!!

How is this possible?? Summer is half over... *gasp, cry, gag, heart clutch

We have had a blast so far this summer! July started with our Summer Reading program in full swing starting on Thursday, July 11th! We had 25 children register again this year that attended over 4 weeks, with the final date being a visit from the GoScience program from the Saskatchewan Science Center on August 1st. We also held Little Lego every Thursday morning from 10:00-11:00, that was very well attended, so we plan on keeping it right through August. We also held a String Art class on July 17th with 11 in attendance. It was a fun night and all of the pieces turned out awesome!!

The Redvers Library wants to give it sincerest THANKS to all of our contributors this years, from donations to lending an extra hand, you make all of these crazy days much more fun for everyone! THANK YOU to: Quennelle Greenhouse for the donation of the bedding plants for the Plant Sale in June (the sale totalled $423!!), Redvers Lions Club for sponsoring the GoScience program, the Piecemakers Quilting club for the donation of batting for the pillows, Marge Garnier for all of your fleece expertise with the tie pillows and coming to help the kids make theirs (those hands were put to good use!!), Maryfield Auditorium for the donation of movie passes that were given away for our Acts of Kindness giveaway each week, Advantage Co-op for the donation of the cake & Longshot Testing for the beverages for the Wrap Up with the GoScience program, and the Redvers Arts Council for their donation at the end of May that helped pay for the last little bits! So much goes into a program like this and we appreciate each and every one of you and your willingness to offer help goes so far and shows just what kind of a community we live in!!

Now for the Upcoming!! August is jam packed with activities to attend! Regular scheduled programs are as follows:

Tuesdays- Coffee & Colouring (adults) 10:00-12:00;
BlockHeadz Lego Club (ages 6+) 3:30-4:30

Thursdays- Little Lego (preschoolers) 10:00-11:00; PS4 Battle (ages 6+) 2:30-4:30 (drop in, bring a friend and come play PS4 and battle it out on one of your many games)

Fridays- PS4 Battle (as above) 10:00-11:30; every other Friday starting August 2nd- Yummi Mummis coffee group (moms and babes) 1:30-3:00

Special programs Monday, Aug 12th Slime Time 3:00-4:00 (bring a container and come make slime)
Wood Burning Week Tues, Aug 20th 1:00-3:30; Wed, Aug 21st 5:00-7:30, Fri, Aug 23th 6:30-8:00. Each spot has room for 8 participants, will be making 12" signs to take home. See poster or contact the Library for more details. Tie Dye Friday -Friday, Aug 30th from 10:00-12:00. Bring a piece of white or light coloured clothing and we will tie dye it together!!

For more information on our programs or what the library has to offer, contact Michelle by phone at 452-3255, find us on Facebook (Redvers Public Library Branch, Southeast Regional Library), on twitter @RedversLibrary or on Instagram @redverspubliclibrary.

CRAZY DAYS OF SUMMER

Submitted by Jocelyn Hainsworth

It feels like it's been a helter skelter summer so far. We're not even at the end of July yet and already there has been quite a few things crossed off our usual 'summer things to do' list.

I've been part of planning and presenting the community's Canada Day celebrations – heck, we've already met to review the day, pay the bills, and discuss best practices for next year!

There were too many glitches in our planned 2019 Garden Tour so the difficult decision was made to cancel for this summer. There are so many beautiful yards and gardens out there, and so many gardeners with individual and unique visions of what they like to grow and how they go about it. It seems a shame not to share these wonderful spaces and learn from each other. We (Tourism) look forward to next summer and hope to offer the tour again. But, personally speaking, when the decision to cancel was finally made I have to admit the open space on my schedule felt like a breath of fresh air!

Since then I've hosted grandchildren, Grandpa has built a raft, we've had a wiener roast, we've picked strawberries and dug new potatoes, and I've weeded what seems like miles of garden.

We've also gone to the Fair at Souris to see their metal art exhibition because grandpa has taken to getting all artistic with his welder in his (semi)retirement. There weren't a lot of exhibits to see but they were impressive. He already has ideas on projects to keep him busy in the dead of winter.

In this past week we've been to Saskatoon to a wedding and fun times with one set of grandchildren and then home long enough to throw different clothes in the suitcase to go camping with another set at Moosomin Lake. I haven't been to town in so long the gals at the grocery store will be thinking we've died for sure. That's next on my list of things to do, or we soon will.

Although the cause of death won't be from lack of vegetables, even a quick trip to the garden shows me there are carrots and cucumbers and beets to pick. I'm avoiding the zucchini; like they say – ignorance is bliss. The strawberries are pretty much done; the raspberries are just getting started.

We had a birthday party in Lampman yesterday and are invited to another one at Moosomin Lake today, and I think there is a pool date with many of the short people we know scheduled for next week.

Thank goodness the following three weeks are sort of open, although one can never tell what's going to pop up, and then grandma has been invited along to help herd little people while we see the dinosaurs at Drumheller. The last week before school starts will be busy too with the Albertan grandsons (and their parents) coming for a visit. I will be ready for school to start again and I haven't had anyone in school for 15 years!

The crazy days of summer ... and yet it's not all like that. Thankfully there are many afternoons to sit in the shade on our deck, watch the hummingbirds fight over sugar water and visit with whomever has dropped in. There are daydreams to explore, scenery to appreciate, plants to water, and thunderstorms to thrill over. Depending on my mood and the company there is water, iced tea, or wine to sip on and a barbeque to prepare supper on. Some of my summer days are pretty lazy – here's hoping yours are too.
