ALIDA DECEMBER HAPPENINGS

Submitted by Edel Cowan

Michael Lemieux arrived at his parents Ernest and Dianne Lemieux on November 22 and on Wednesday, November 23 he accompanied Debbie Sorensen (Carlyle), Alan and Kathy Arthur, Lloyd Sorensen (Redvers), and Brian Sorensen (Deloraine) to Winnipeg where they attended the funeral for Ella (Sorensen) Thompson. Michael returned to Lloydminster on November 29.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Lucille (Louis) Gervais and family on the death of her mom, Clarise Frecon who passed away at Redvers Health Centre Long Term Care on November 30/2022 at the age of 92. She will be forever cherished by her children: David (Bonne), Lucille (Louis) Gervais, Irene (Don) McLeod, Fabien (Aggie), Brian (Wendy), Brian (Wendy), Odette (Russ) Annetts, 19 grandchildren, 41 great-grandchildren, her siblings: Elsie (Clifford) Sabiston, Garielle (Peter) Warren, step brother Rene Rogg, Step sister Celine (Bob) Osebold, as well as numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Albert, son Emile, parents Alphonse and Gabrielle Rogg as well as four siblings, their spouses and step sister France. Funeral Mass was on December 5 at Redvers Catholic Church. Condolences are extended to all family members and friends.

On Friday, December 2 the Alida Rec. Board members held their Memorial Bingo Fundraiser in memory of Lisette Dubuc. Lisette was an amazing community member, and this commitment was seen every Monday at Alida's weekly Bingo. She was always there to help and she is greatly missed. At the Hall on Friday people began to gather when doors were open at 6:30 pm. Over 61 Bingo players began collecting their cards and other guests went on to collect tickets for the Chinese auction which boasted an excellent variety of prizes. There was also a Silent auction table holding some unique prizes as well. Teresa Lemieux soon welcomed everyone to the event and began to call out Bingo numbers and I believe that she did a good job. There were also a number of door prizes available or those who participated in entering their names. A Beer garden was open and following the bingo an evening lunch was available. The winners of the Chinese and Silent auction tables were soon disclosed and the evening came to a very successful end especially when it was discovered that this event brought somewhere between five and six thousand. The Rec. Board appreciates your great support in both attending this event and for all the donations that were received. Way – go – everyone!

Act One Productions held an audition meeting on December 6 where they were able to cast five actors for the March 2023 production. The play that was chosen was "I Take This Man", a screwball farce by Jack Sharky, and the five actors are Shanna Carriere, Tim Cowan, Wes and Rachelle Smith, and Sheldon Kyle. Good Luck actors have fun and we'll see you in March.

On Saturday, December 10 the drama tickets went on sale – there was a fair good turnout, half of the seats for the Saturday Dinner Theater were sold and about half of the seats for Friday Cocktail Theater. Tickets are now available at the Alida Post Office during their business hours. Either come pick up your tickets whenever you are in town or you can phone Linda at (306-577-3155) to reserve your tickets and pick them up when in town. Or she may even let you reserve, pay for your tickets, then pick up at the door of the production night you selected. Have any questions she will try her best to answer them. Drama week is on March 9, 10, 11, and Matinee on Sunday 12. Also keep a watch out for posters, Facebook postings etc. Just ask around, someone will be able to direct you. Remember this production is being presented in recognition of Lynette Peet, who was very much involved with the club.

Linda and Don Akins went to Regina Dec. 13 where Linda had a medical appointment the next morning and they also met their daughter Melissa (Cranbrook, BC). They all had an early Christmas with their granddaughter Karly and her friend Alyssa on Wednesday (14th) in Regina. On Thursday night attended the Dolly Parton show at Regina Casino. Then Friday morning they met Melissa and her friend Ron for breakfast before heading back home.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Don Frankard, who had passed away at the Luther Home Personal Care Home in Winnipeg on December 12/2023 at the age of 77. He is survived by his wife Denise, Children Michelle (Robert), Sean (Bobbi), Nicolle (Jase), four grandchildren, his older sister

Lynne (Doug), and twin sister Paulette (Arnie). Don taught for 10 years in St. James, Winnipeg before making a career change and relocated his family to the original Frankard Farm in the R.M. of Reciprocity #32 (near Redvers) until 2006 when then moved to Gladstone, MB. Respecting Don's wishes, no service will be held.

The Alida community wishes to extend Congratulations to Jim Boettcher and Marcelle Peterson who were married December 16/2023 at The Redvers Union Estates condo. Best wishes Jim and Marcelle on your new journey in life together.

Sincere sympathy to Andy and Irene Girard on the death of their brother, Morris "Maurice" Girard (Douglas, MB) at the age of 67 who passed away on December 20/2023 at the age of 67. Brandon Regional Health Centre. He was predeceased by his parents Marcel and Marie, and brother, John. Maurice is survived by his wife Betty Ann, sons Mark (Alyssa), Doug (Sara) and Chris (Chelsey, nine grandchildren, brother, Andy and sister, Irene Girard. Attending the Celebration of Maurice's Life in Brandon on December 29 were Andy, Irene, and from Alida were Prudent Mailhiot, Tim/ Shelly and Ainsley Cowan.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Greg Swallow and family on the death of his father, Glenn Swallow (Alameda) at the Galloway Health Centre, Oxbow on December 23/2022 at the age of 72. He is survived by his wife Judy, children Greg and Becky and his grandchildren Megan, Orrin and Emmett. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Winter has definitely arrived with a vengeance it's been blowing and snowing for a couple of days now and the snow is piling up. Guess we couldn't get away with the great nice weather that we'd been having where one could almost continue to venture outside without a jacket on. On well good old fashioned Saskatchewan weather has returned. Its winter time and Christmas is a week away and 2022 is just about over, just two weeks left, not sure where the time has gone, but never the less it's gone. Do hope that 2022 wasn't that bad of a year, definitely was a mixed bag of weather – from dry to wet, from hot to cold and everything in between. Let's hope that 2023 will be much better for everyone. That there will be no more Covid situations, do believe that we may have had a touch of Covid (didn't test positive) so maybe it was just a good case of the flu. Thank goodness for all the vaccinations and shots that were available, any germ didn't stand a chance to hand around for long and one was back into the swing of things. Anyway enough complaining and let's move on to the new year with great anticipation.

Spending Christmas holiday with Leonard and Lil Patton were their family from Calgary Wendy and Rob Lutzer, granddaughters Kayley and Reece (Vancouver), and on Christmas Day Trevor, Sheri Patton and family Cordelia and Keagan joined the family.

Despite the miserable weather during the wee early hours on Christmas Day most of family were at the Cowan farm with Gray and Edel to celebrate Christmas. Arriving for dinner and enjoying the gifts that Santa had brought were Jeff Cowan and Raylene Markoski, (Regina), her mother Dianne Markoski (Alameda), Lacie Nilsen and her friend Jesse (Regina), Tim, Shelly and Ainsley Cowan. Then December 26 we enjoyed a Chinese supper which Kelsey Rydberg and Steven Wilson brought to Tim/Shelly's home – delicious.

Faye Walker spent the Christmas week with her family, Diedra, Jeff Nickel and granddaughters Olivia, Abigale, Claire and Piper in Saskatoon returning home on December 29. She received the best news ever – her lost blind dog Pepper had been found alive after three weeks, much appreciation to Layne for spotting the dog, picking him up and looking after him until she got home. You're a guardian angel Layne.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Diane, Ken Potapinski and family on the death of her mother Marion Barber of Macgregor, MB on December 31/2022. Celebration of her life is pending. Condolences are extended to all family members and friends.

On December 31 friends and family gathered at the Alida Rink where they enjoyed good food, potluck appetizers, drinks, skating, games and visiting with everyone ringing in the New Year. A good time was had by all.

Do hope your holiday season was filled with your favorite traditions – with love of family and friends and happy memories that you'll remember for a long time. Wishing you all the very best in 2023 – Happy New Year y'all!

CUP HALF FULL

Submitted by Jocelyn Hainsworth

I am sitting down to write this on the first morning of 2023. The rush of the holiday season is behind us, the company has gone home, the big meals have been prepared and enjoyed, the gifts have been opened, and I plan to take the tree down tomorrow. There are only a few chocolates left to eat and my waistband is encouraging me to let someone else do that job.

This is a day when we focus on the future, the 365 days ahead of us, and our expectations of what is to come. It's a superstitious time of year, or at least it is for me. I look for omens in these first few hours of the year to foretell what might wait for us down the road. It's nothing more than a silly game, something to do to put off undecorating for at least one more day.

Besides, any of the omens I have come up with so far are totally open to interpretation. You can see either good or bad depending on how you read the circumstances.

For instance, the menu for today is a pot of hamburger soup. That is about as plain-jane a meal as anyone can think of. You can look at it as a poor meal choice for a holiday or you can see lots of nutrition in a single dish. As the cook I know I was inspired by laziness – the top layer of a very full deep freeze is hamburger; I didn't feel like digging for something else. Omen or not, our future is very food secure and I'm thankful for that.

After so many days of gloomy weather and even dangerous conditions, today is dazzling in its brilliance. The hoar frost is breathtakingly white against a blue sky. There are those who are doing their weather math and predicting that the recent fogs will mean rain in three or six months. Depending on which theory you subscribe to, the implied rains will be a menace or a benefit to either seeding or haying and spraying. Those things are out of our hands, so I am just enjoying the beauty outside my window this morning. I may even go out for a walk to enjoy it more. Is that the omen I am looking for? That this is the day I begin (again) exercising every day? We'll see how that goes.

There quite a few old superstitions that a person can delve into... the kiss at midnight is supposed to ward off loneliness for the coming year, making noise is supposed to scare away evil, and we are advised to open our doors and windows at midnight to let out the old and welcome in the new. Another one says that the first visitor of the year should be a tall stranger who brings a small gift; that one sounds a little tricky to arrange, but there's another that says to eat twelve grapes at midnight (one for good luck in each coming month) that seems easier to accomplish.

As for our personal New Years Eve, we spent it with friends eating good food, and as I predicted... the gals beat the guys at Canasta. Not sure if this portends anything for the future but it does give us temporary bragging rights – that's always fun. I also had predicted that I would win the Firemen's 50/50 draw but that didn't work out as planned. Oh well.

All that stuff that was supposed to happen at the stroke of midnight? Well, we left that up to Fate. We were home and fast asleep by then.

The truth is that this year will be what we make of it. No matter if we are met with calamity and chaos or peace and prosperity, it's our reaction to it that matters. Good can come from bad and bad can come from good; it's our choice.

That being said, here's wishing everyone a happy 2023! May your cup always be half full.

HAVEN HAPPENINGS

Submitted by Barbara Dennis

HAPPY NEW YEAR from residents and staff of Redvers Haven in the Redvers Health Centre.

Mrs. Heather Sanborn's class of grade 4/5's blessed us with a visit mid December. The students performed a 'playlet' for those gathered to hear the performance. Then under the supervision of teacher and activity worker spread out and decorated the resident's room doors. The class had brought pre-prepared decorations (ribbon strings of lights, mitts, stars, Christmas balls; 3'x7' panels of snowmen; a Christmas tree made of hands) suitable to place on doors and in hallways. The enthusiasm and energy of the children brought smiles and laughter to their senior hosts!

December 23rd was a very special day. Residents and staff enjoyed a KFC noon meal.

The highlight of the day was the Carievale crew of Curtis and Bonnie Szakacs with family of Heidi, Meka, Alonzo (accompanied by girl friend Jenessa), Peter, Sunny, Aime, Davidson and Isaac, along with Mopsey their little 7 month old dog. Not sure if the residents enjoyed the music or the dog more as both made a huge impact. The Szakacs' gave us a lovely concert with a variety of numbers, many self written, and all performed beautifully.

Mopsey toured the room on all fours and in the arms of her owners visiting all that wanted some canine love. Resting comfortably and quietly in her carrier during her people family's performance she was still well behaved upon release to cuddle some more with her newfound friends.

We took the opportunity at the concert to make a few draws.

The "You are my sunshine" quilt made and donated by Marguerite and Wilfred Petit was awarded to RN Kevin Reimer. He was rather shocked and slightly embarrassed to win, he said. A lucky winner indeed!

The quilt was not our only raffle. Two gift baskets containing a variety of goods and treats were also drawn for. Jennette Poirier and Vivian Perreux were the fortunate winners, one for each of them.

There were a HUGE number of raffle tickets sold: a testament to the beauty of the quilt and the out standing support the Redvers and District community shows its own. Thank you ticket buyers and ticket sellers!

I have it on good authority that Santa Claus will be making a stop prior to returning to the North Pole on the morning of the 25th bringing his own brand of gifts. The residents will be blessed as well, with their gifts from the "Adopt A Resident" campaign. Many thanks to the community for their generous adoptions.

January will bring a visit to the polar cap. The adage, "If you can't beat it, join it." applies. Winter in Saskatchewan – might as well embrace it - so we will! We have entertainers coming, doggie treats to make, bingos to win, cards and dice and board games, crafts to make, birthdays to celebrate, and the list goes on.

From our doors to yours – may 2023 find you ever grateful for each new day.

A huge thank you to the following businesses and organizations who purchased ads in this month's newsletter. Without their support, we would not be able to provide this service at no cost to the residents of Redvers & Area.

Please make sure to thank them the next time you are at their place of business! Their support really does make a difference in our community!
