ALIDA JUNE HAPPENINGS

Submitted by Edell Cowan

Prairie Pride Credit Union held a Taste of Summer Fun-Raiser BBQ on May 31 at the Alida Branch with all proceeds donated to the Alida Golden Gate Centre. Your continued support is very much appreciated.

The Alida Sports Day was held June 2 and 3 with four slow-pitch teams registered – The Slumdogs (Redvers), 361 Café (Alida), Teau Baylors (Carnduff) and JAKS Blackouts (Alida). The first game got underway on Friday evening. The Rec. Board Ladies had the bar and kitchen tables opened. They served up a delicious BBQ hamburgers and hotdogs to all who came. The next day, June 3 saw lots of action on the ball field as all teams soon had their turn. Once again the Vertex BBQ was heated up and the hamburgers and hotdogs were in great demand and very delicious. The results of the slow-pitch tournament were as follows: Team Teau Baylors of Carnduff was the A-side winner; Team 361 (Alida) won the B-side and

The Slumdogs of Redvers won the C-side. A great time seemed to be had by all in attendance. The BBQ Pac was not drawn for at this time, was drawn on the Father's Day weekend (June 18) – and the lucky winner was Michele (Boutin) Anderson of Alida. Congratulations Michele, hope you enjoy all the goodies. Appreciation goes to all those who donated prizes to the draw and to all who supported it by purchasing tickets. It was truly another successful event for the Rec. Board.

Alida community extends sincere sympathy to Lucille and Louis Gervais on the passing of her brother David Frecon on May 27. His Funeral Mass was held June 2 at Redvers. Condolences are also extended to all family members.

ALIDA JUNE HAPPENINGS

Shelly Cowan and daughter Ainsley spent from June 9 – 12 holidaying at Medora, ND with the Nilsen family. Kelsey Rydberg (Estevan) and Lacie Nilsen (Regina) also joined the family for the weekend.

I noticed an obituary notice on Facebook that Betty Peter (nee Larsen) of Outlook, SK had passed away on June 7, 2023 at the age of 76 years. She was formally from the Wauchope, Redvers and Buchanan areas before moving to Outlook. She leaves to mourn her passing – her husband Tony, daughters Kristie and Lyla and son Bruce, two grandchildren Natalie and Dominic; four siblings Ken, Leo, Egon and Myrna and their families.

I attended the 100th Anniversary celebration of Dannevirke Lutheran Church on Sunday, June 11. The celebrations began with a special church service at 11:00 am. A luncheon was then held at the Redvers Legion Hall (catered by the Weirs of Manor) which was then followed by a program, congratulatory speeches and letters, Anniversary cake and coffee and a Dutch/Silent auction. There was a very nice crowd in attendance, visitors from near and far – it was so nice to see long-time friends. Later one was able to visit Dannevirke Cemetery to see the improvement that had been made before calling it great day.

I hope that all the Dads, Grandpas, Uncles, Sons, Brothers, and Step-dads too all had a very good Father's Day on Sunday, June 18 and if possible enjoyed your day with family.

The guys are now very busy with the sprayer – if not to control the weed population some have also been out spraying for grasshoppers – if it's not one thing it's another. Let's hope all will be okay now, but now wish it would give us a nice three-day gentle rain – it is certainly dry out there and I know my poor garden and flowers could really use a drink of rain water now (I'm unable to run a water sprinkle here on the farm). Oh I guess we're just never satisfied, always wanting something more – guess we'll just have to take what we get. We did finally received a much needed rain one night, surely made a huge difference in my garden – things just seemed to sprout higher and begin to produce their fruit.

There was a little excitement for a little while in Alida on Sunday – as a car caught on fire in the street. Thank goodness no one was hurt and it was soon under control. Take care.

The next thing coming up on the agenda is school graduation for those who are graduating at the end of June – Congratulations to all Grads and the very Best of wishes on your future endeavors.

Swimming pools are or will be opening soon – so remember to sign up for your set of swimming lessons and enjoy the pool on these hot summer days. If interested in booking Swimming lessons for the coming season – there will be three sets of lessons in July (1st week 3-7), (2nd set 17-21), (3rd set 31-Aug 1); to book call Shanna at 306-485-8647 – lessons are $75/week. Hope to see you at the Pool.

Sincerest sympathy is extended to Dianne Lemieux, her son Michael and his family on the death of her husband/father Ernest Lemieux who passed away June 19, 2023 at the age of 79 at the Redvers Health Centre. Condolences are passed on to other family relatives as well. A private family graveside service will be held at a later date. Michael Lemieux (Lloydminster, AB spent a few days with his mother at this time.

On Friday, June 16 Gary and Brenda Junk travelled to Cypress Hills and toured the Hills before heading to Calgary where they spent June 17 and 18 watching their grandsons Jaxson and Chase Junk play ball. Then they headed on to Sylvan Lake where they attended a family pre-grad celebration in honor of Jaxson's Grade 12 Graduation with family members – Jody, Jill and boys, as well as with Kara and daughter Morgan.

On Friday, June 23 there was a very nice small parade in Alida for the Grade 12 students who have family and friends in Alida. The parade began around 7:30 pm from the Rink, led by Alida Fire Truck followed by our four Grade 12 graduates in their grad apparel walking directly behind this truck. They were followed by a number of vintage vehicles driven by the owners and Alida's second Fire truck brought up the rear. They went down Prairie Avenue to Centre Street turned to the right hand side of the boulevard and at #361 made a U-turn and came back down Centre Street on the left side to the end of street then made another U-turn and returned to the centre intersection and then posed for pictures and visits among everyone. There was a very nice turnout of family and friends who came to watch. This is very awesome way to celebrate and honor our graduates. Oxbow Prairie Heights Grade 12 Graduation was held June 29. Good Luck and Best Wishes Grads in your future endeavors.

School is now finished for another year. The students have likely moved on to their next grade, graduation celebrations are over, time just keeps moving forward. Enjoy your summer holiday and before you know it school will be called back into session – end of August the staff begins themselves ready and the students will be called back in September, the 5th I believe.

Hope everyone had a very enjoyable Canada Day on Saturday, July 1. Whatever and where ever you spent the day – do hope it was a good one. We just spent a very quiet day at home, too hot for old folks like us to be out and about – like to stay be the air conditioner. But it was a good day for us and the old dog.

Congratulations and Best wishes to the Harrison family – who all welcomed a new baby girl to the family. Jude Harrison Lindsay arrived safe and sound on June 24/2023. Proud parents are Cody and Courtney Lindsay of Lloydminster, Grandparents are Betty-Jo and Aaron DeJong of Lashburn and Great-grandpa is Bob Harrison of Sylvan Lake.

Visiting with the Junk families and attending the Oxbow Prairie Heights Graduation celebration on June 29 were Gloria Girard, Kara Junk and her daughter Morgan all of Sylvan Lake. Enjoy your holiday time with the family folks.

Swimming lessons are now beginning – the first set begins July 3-7; second set July 17-21 and third set scheduled for July 31-August 1. Call Shanna (306-485-8647) to book your week. Enjoy the swimming pool now this season.

We now say 'Good-bye' to June and 'Hello' to July – hope your summer will be a good one – Enjoy but remember to drive with caution and take care. Also please remember folks to give me a call or text at 306-485-8561 with any summer news that is happening with your family and visitors. Your info always makes for a good column for folks to read. Appreciate all your assistance. Keep cool and Take care.

DANNEVIRKE'S 100TH

Submitted by Rose Lauritsen

Dannevirke Lutheran Church, Redvers, celebrated its 100th Anniversary on Sunday, June 11, 2023.

The celebrations started with an 11:00 a.m. communion service at Dannevirke. Bishop Sid Haugen of the Saskatchewan Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada presided over the church service and brought greetings on behalf of the synod. Other clergy who took part in the church service were Rev. Michelle Moore, Pastor Ron Vert, and Pastor Sarah Urano. The organist/pianist was Linda Sogbetun and Louanne Jonassen also played a piano piece for the service.

A luncheon, a silent auction and raffle, as well as a program were held at the Redvers Legion Hall. Approximately 110 people attended. Cheryl Zander was the emcee. In addition to greetings from the Bishop and other clergy in attendance, greetings and reminiscences were presented from people in attendance and several letters of congratulations were read. Dallas Jonassen spoke about the improvements at the Dannevirke Cemetery, Mayor Brad Bulbuck brought greetings from the Town of Redvers, and Alan Arthur conveyed congratulations from the RM of Reciprocity. A special hand bell duet was performed by Pastor Ron Vert and Patsy Andrews-Vert. Lisa Campbell sang a song. Also, an anniversary choir presented several vocal selections and led a sing-along. Choir members were Rev. Michelle Moore, Louanne Jonassen, Wendy Turton, Jocelyn Hainsworth, Barbara Boese, Nancy Larsen James, Lisa Campbell, and Lyla Carlsen, accompanied by Linda Sogbetun.

The planning committee for this celebration consisted of Cheryl Zander, Rev. Michelle Moore, Louanne Jonassen, Juanita Henderson, Lorna Dickison, Rose Lauritsen, and Laust Lauritsen. Thank you to the planning committee, to all the volunteers and donors, and to all who attended. Your participation helped to make this celebration a success.

HAVEN HAPPENINGS JULY 2023

Submitted by Barbara Dennis

Happy Canada Day everyone! Our Canada Day at the Haven included red Maple Leaf temporary tattoos, ice cream and family visits.

June's Father's Day draw was won by Jackie Simins. Many thanks to the Log Cabin for their generous donation of a gift certificate. Not sure what Jackie will do with the fishing tackle/bait etc.!! Danielle Frederickson of Saddle Ridge Farms from Wawota recently came to visit. Saddle Ridge brought a variety of animals/birds: ferret, ducks, chickens, rabbits, guinea pigs, as well as a lizard and a hedgehog.

July activities include music by Ryan Bender, Ed James, Phil Wilk, Phil Reddekop and Marie Vail, as well as Lyons Country Band. We also have a farm visit planned. Hopefully the weather will be agreeable for the outing.

Redvers Health Centre administration has organized a Family and Friends Barbeque for July 18. Many thanks for the generosity of so very many donators to the silent and Chinese auctions being held that day.

This will be my last submission to Covering the Corner. I have voluntarily composed a monthly Haven report since inception of the newsletter but all things come to an end.

Perhaps someone else will pick up the quill!!!

Congratulations!

THE GRANDMA OF THE YEAR AWARD

Submitted by Jocelyn Hainsworth

I've been at this Grandma gig for a while now; one would think I should have it mastered. This is not the case.

Being retired as I am, my time is my own. The best part of not having a work schedule is not having a schedule at all. My time is my own. I do my own thing when I feel like doing it. I've gotten quite good at this. I do have commitments and I show up for them (unless I forget) but I prefer to keep my days wide open for possibilities – even if that means reading a book all afternoon. I like my time unorganized, as opposed to disorganized, although to the casual observer it might be hard to tell the difference.

When I was asked way back in January to keep the kids on the Canada Day weekend so their parents could take in the Dauphin Music Fest I said “sure” and shelved the responsibility to the distant future. Months went by and the subject resurfaced a time or two because of selling their house and buying another one and possession dates and maybe they wouldn't be able to manage this holiday weekend at all in their busy summer, but in the end, they decided to make it work and the babysitting date at Grandma's place held firm.

So, I can't say this snuck up on me. I knew it was coming.

Other goals and life events kept coming up. There was a garden to plant ... and water ... and weed. Seeding went on f o r e v e r and our half ton died in the middle of it. So then there was the decision of what to do ... fix or buy? New or used? And then a trip to Selkirk where there was a really good deal to be had, and then needing to hurry that trip up because of one of those commitments I had managed to forget.

With getting-ready-for-company (the kids aren't our only weekend guests) forefront in my mind I was trying to get yard work done only to have my lawnmower quit on me. The past two weeks have been a scramble.

And then it was time to pick up the kids.

The cookie jar is empty. I have no menu plan for 85% of the next five days. Heck, I'm not even sure of what day it is. And then there was a reminder from Covering the Corner that Sunday is my deadline. Of course it is. One more thing on my to do list.

The house is now scattered with lego and hot wheels and bits of last night's popcorn. I've been asked for the sprinkler and water balloons and the spray nozzle about 50 times even though I've answered “after dinner” every time ... which inevitably starts a discussion of whether I mean ‘lunch’ or ‘supper’ when I say ‘dinner’.

My table is strewn with craft supplies, my kitchen sink is unusable because we are waiting for the Stop Leak to cure on the faucet hose, I have dirty dishes stacked everywhere, cookies cooling on the counter and buns in the oven. The kids just requested homemade potato soup for dinner/lunch at 11:15. That's not going to happen today.

It hasn't been all crazy though, I managed to squeeze in a ten-minute hair and makeup makeover at the hands of the grand daughter between the cookies and the buns. It was more of a success than the surprise party she had planned which was a disaster because her brother refused to sit in his assigned chair.

My goal is to totally tire them out so they go to bed easily tonight. I need the rest. We may be spending a couple hours at the pool, it hasn't been decided yet. A good grandma would go to the pool all the days; I am not that Grandma.

I am also not the Grandma who does well in the birthday department. Remember that trip to Selkirk where another set of Grandkids live? Well, one of those boys was about to have his 11th birthday. I knew this and even asked his mother what he would like ... and then the subject got changed... and then I forgot all about it. On the morning of his actual birthday I drove to town, bought a card and sent him money to buy his own gift – which will be late, of course. Grandmother of the Year Award, I don't think so.

Ah well, an actual award is just something I would have to dust. What I do have is happy kids bouncing on a trampoline with a sprinkler set up underneath it, a minefield of crippling Lego spread across the living room floor, hand and nose prints all over the garden door glass, and a cookie jar that's already half empty again. That's got to count for something.
