

Brad Bulbuck's Speech – Homecoming Weekend

Thank you to all the families for their ancestors that were nominated here today for coming. Some of you are local, some of you come from a long way away, but its really great to see people come out to attend events like this and remember the history of our community, not only our community but so many communities around us. Common theme here, you know all these people had their own careers, but what they are being recognized for is their volunteerism in the community. Without these builders and the founders, the Town of Redvers wouldn't be what it is today. So, when everybody is wondering whether not what they can do to help out, remember these people that have helped out in many different ways. Because we can all make a better community.

I also want to thank the organizers here, talk about volunteerism. (clapping) We got Tricia the C.A.O. of the Town of Redvers; we got Jena the Assistant C.A.O. of the Town of Redvers; Michelle Jensen, she is a Councillor; and Raylene also here she is the Accounting Assistant. Plus, the many other volunteers that helped out this weekend, this is a huge weekend that took massive volunteerism. So, we thank you all, everybody enjoy the rest of your weekend. (Tricia: "Katy Soroka and Janet Dauvin") Katy Soroka and Janet Dauvin are also here, thank you very much. Janet Dauvin was our Tour Guide for the weekend.
